“Very early in the morning the leading priests and the elders of the people met again to lay plans for putting Jesus to death. Then they bound him, led him away, and took him to Pilate, the Roman governor. When Judas, who had betrayed him, realized that Jesus had been condemned to die, he was filled with remorse. So he took the thirty pieces of silver back to the leading priests and the elders. “I have sinned,” he declared, “for I have betrayed an innocent man.” “What do we care?” they retorted. “That’s your problem.” Then Judas threw the silver coins down in the Temple and went out and hanged himself.” (Matthew 27:1–5, NLT)

“Before the Passover celebration, ... the devil had already prompted Judas, son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus.” (John 13:1–2, NLT)

“Satan entered into him.” (John 13:27, NLT)

“Not that he cared for the poor—he was a thief, and since he was in charge of the disciples’ money, he often stole some for himself.” (John 12:5–6, NLT)

*“We left everything we owned and followed you, didn’t we?”
(Luke 18:28, The Message)*

“Judas, would you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?” (Luke 22:47–48, NLT)

“When Judas, who had betrayed him, realized that Jesus had been condemned to die, he was filled with remorse.” (Matthew 27:3, NLT)

“Then Judas ... went out and hanged himself.” (Matthew 27:5, NLT)

“When you were stuck in your old sin-dead life, you were incapable of responding to God. God brought you alive—right along with Christ! Think of it! All sins forgiven, the slate wiped clean, that old arrest warrant canceled and nailed to Christ’s cross.” (Colossians 2:13–14, The Message)
